The self-owner is owner of his own mind and body and his own property. No peaceful nonaggressive citizen can be submitted to the control of others, apart from his own consent. The moral rights of a delegated body, such as a government, can never be greater than the moral rights of the individuals who delegated to it its power.

Has Australia's Libertarian Time Arrived?

The Adam Smith Club will host a meeting on Thursday the 13th of November, 2014 at the Park Conference Room, Ground Floor, Amora Hotel 649 Bridge Rd, Richmond.

David Leyonhjelm is a vet, with a law degree and an MBA. He has worked as a columnist for agricultural magazines and for the national financial press. Originally from Heywood, Victoria, now residing in Sydney, Senator Leyonhjelm has boxed the compass politically in trying to find a home for his strong views on personal liberty and limited government. Starting with Young Labor and a stand against the draft, then working for the Liberal interest until the Howard Government's changed policy on Gun ownership, then working with Shooters Party until he found them too narrow in focus. The senator ran the national campaigns for the Liberal Democratic Party in 2007, 2010 & 2013 - and was successful in gaining a six year term starting 1st July this year for NSW.

Attendance is open to both members and non-members. Those desiring to attend should complete the attached slip and return it to the Club no later than Wednesday the 12th of November, 2014. Tickets will not be sent. Those attending should arrive at 6:15pm. Sen. Leyonhjelm will address the Club at 7:00pm. The cost is $15.00 per head for members and $20.00 per head for non-members (see next page for explanation of arrangements and for electronic booking details).
